English Literature	Invention of Shoes	Extract 1:- Said good king Hobu To Minister Gobu. "I've pondered all night:is it just That whenever my feet Should land on the street They come to be sullied by dust? Your wages you draw, But you don't care a straw To serve the demands of the king It's a rank plot to foil me, My own soil to soil me: Q. 1 What was the king's order to minister Gobu? Ans :-King Hobu considered himself as the owner of the earth but he hated when his feet got covered with the dust of the same earth. So, the king ordered the minister to find a solution for this. Q. 2 Why did the king think that Gobu and the other courtiers were plotting against him? Ans :-In king Hobu's opinion, Gobu and the rest of the ministers were not honest to him even though they are paid by him. If a group of officials do not care about the king, it is dishonesty and plotting.	https://youtu.be/6BNII9M-pNU

		Extract 2:- The terrified Minister At these words sinister Broke into cold sweat with fright: The pandits grew pale, And the courtiers once hale, Lay sleeplessly tossing all night. Q1. What was the impact of the king's order upon the courtiers? Ans :-The courtiers got panicky when the king proclaimed such a terrible order. They broke into cold sweat with fear. Even the highly respected priests grew pale and the other courtiers lost their sleep after this order of the king. Q2. Why are the king's words said to be sinister? Ans :-Anything that evokes extreme fear is said to be 'sinister.' The king's order appeared to be an impossible task for the courtiers, priests and ministers that they were filled with extreme fear.
